We have the foreign news by the steame Africa, this morning, which is quite interesting. The Dorby Ministry have been sustained. Succossful experiments have been made with the now paying out machine for the Atlantic cable. No doubt is now entertained of the success of the project. It was expected that communication would be had with New York in July .-The news from India is unimportant. The movements of Nana Sahib still occasion some anxiety. besides an armed rabbal. Other foreign news interesting, though not politically important .was reported in the grain trade, without material decline in prices.

From Washington, we learn that our war vesthem by force. That is the only method to bring from the Poets of Ireland and America, John Bull to his sonses. The House Committee passage of a bankrupt law, taking opposite grounds to the recommendations of the Presi-

How to SETTLE THE QUESTION .- In the last number of the Green Bay Advocate, we find the following suggestion relative to the Capital remo-"Charley" first gives his opinion of how the controversy "looks to a man sitting on a stump." Ho says: The Milwaukee and Madison papers are not

Green Bay Items.

A vessel is now building at Green Bay, which is intended for the Atlantic. The Advecute is sanguine of the success of this new enterprise, and thinks Ocean ship building could be carried on profitably there. It says: It is remarkable that the pioneer effort in a

It is remarkable that the pioneer effort in a new business of such magnitude should be a tended with such success; and it offers a convincing proof that this must at once become a point for large operations of the same kind.

The vessel new on the stocks will be launched early in July, and, as soon as she can be fitted out, will be leaded with a carge of ship timber and go out through the Welland Cacal and St. Lawrence River to the ocean. She is a little over 400 tone burthen; lougth on deck 130 foot; depth of hold, 124 foot; beam, 25 foot 8 inches; and will be barque ringed. She is a perfect tower of strongth. Iter builders told us that timber of exact shape was so easily obtained, that little oxtra cost was involved in making the that little extra cost was involved in making the vossel perfect in every particular. We admired especially the strengthening of her deck timbers, by two longing, and two horizontal knees at each oud; and generally the fine workmanabip, the close joints, and the apparent strength which is observable throughout. The Advocate states that Sheriff Mosika, of Oconto county, came up on Tuesday, having in charge a young man arrested for stealing two watches and a lot of goods at Menomones.-While in charge of the Sheriff at Ocento, he picked the pocket of a follow lodger of several dollars. He is now in safe quartors at Dopore.

Road Excursion!

FROM DETROIT IN ONE DAY!—For the first time, we yesterday rode via. D. & M. R. R. and Ball's Line of Steamers through from Detroit to Grand Haven in one day. We left the Biddle House, (which is being elegantly and tastefully decorated.) at 7 80. A. M. and reached Grand Haven at 10 o'clock P. M. only fourteen hours.

OLIVE BRANCH,—This splended boat is to run between Grand Rapids and Grand Haven, in connection with the Milwaukee Line of Steamars.

We understand that the People of Mill Point, are going to celebrate our great Anniver-sary of Independence in magnificent style, the coming Fourth.

NEW MILITARY COMPANY AT PORTAGE CITY .-We find the following in the last number of the Bedger State: Amilitary company is now being organized in our city, in conformity with the new militia law. The right sort of men have taken it in hand, and The right sort of men have taken it in hand, and we expect soon to have a company here a little sheed of any other in the State. We feel warranted in assuring the timid that the movement is popular. Attention all!

THE CROPS.—A Portage exchange says, that winter wheat looks particularly well about that region, but corn is rotting, in consequence of the very wet seesop, and will have to be planted over again. The quantity of rain this spring has been unusually great and that of sunshine sorrespondingly small. Besides winter wheat, other crops give fair indications.

Miss Esmonox's READINGS .- This highly gilted young lady, it will be remembered, will entertain our citizens, at Albany Hall, on Monday evening, by one of her reading, from the poets He had a strong body of envalry, 25,000 Sepoys, of Ireland and America. Miss Esmonde is spokon of in the highest forms by the Press, where she has been heard, and we have no doubt but In the Liverpool market, a continual duliness | that the promised entertrinment here, will be such a one as we do not often have an opportunity of enjoying. FIREMAN'S FUNERAL. - The funeral of MARTIN Sonsitz, a member of Engine Co. No. 6, took place yesterday afternoon, and was attended by large number of the members of our Fire Dapartment, dressed in uniform. The funeral procession was quite a lengthy one; it passed through some of the principal streets preceded by a band of music, discoursing solemn airs. The procession was arranged in the following order: First, Chief Engineer and assistants; second, hoseso, with the uniform of the deceased fireman on the cover, and the pall bearers walking at each side, followed by the members of the saying the pleasantest things of each others company to which Scamirz belonged. HUMPHENT, arrived here on the 27th, on her return from Buffelo, after having made the trip from this city and back in fourteen days and fourteen hours. The Lansing took down a cargo of wheat, and was detained two days and seventeen hours, in unloading, &c. This is deuidedly the factors time ever made by a sailing crait, between these ports. When this is beston we shall be glad to make note of it.

Business Change. The interest in the Book Store, 158 East Water St., owned by Ford & Fairbanks, has been disposed of to S. C. Wasy. and the stock of goods removed to a store newly fitted up on the corner of East Water and Michigan streets. Of books, stationary and paper hangings, the assortment is probably unsurpassed in the city. There is one room devoted exclusively to the exhibition and sale of paper hangings and decerations; and any one in search o mything in this line, will do well to give this department an examination. The advertisemen a spether column meaks for itself.

A Good IDBA .-- In view of the muddy stronts the ladies have had to contend against all this Spring, and with a determination not to be behind in the way of improvements, our friends J. L. Davis and Uncle Ban have constructed, at their own expense, a flag-stone walk soress E. Water street. The work is a great public convenience, no injury to the street, and the ladies as they trip lightly over it, their dry goods fully protected from the mud, will no doubt appreciate the public spirit of the gentlemen named above. The Golonel is widely known in our community, and he leaves a host of warm friends here, whose well wishes he will bear with him H wherever he may go. He has our most sincere hopes for his health and prosperity.

THE STEAM FERRY ROUTE. -The steamer Forsater made her second trip across the Lake from Grand Haven in six hours, arriving here at at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. She brought over fifty passengers. CHICAGO AND MILWAUKER MARKETS .-- We direct the attention of our Janesville friends to the reports of these two markets, which will be found in our commercial columns this morning, Spring wheat, it will be seen, was selling in the Chicago market, for 60 and 61 cents, and dull at that, while there was a good demand for the same article here at 63 and 65 cents. Quite a difference, indeed. Oats in Chicago are bringing 26 cents, in our market 25 cents. WINGHELL AT YOUNG'S HALL TO-NIGHT .-- It le quite unnecessary to say anything commendatory of this funny character, for everybody knows WINGHELL, and the bare announcement of his being at Young's Hall to-night, is sufficent to draw a large crowd there. Where Winchell is, there is fun, and any one who can coep a straight face, while he is representing one of his droll characters, can do more than my'man we have ever yet seen. Let those who loubt what we say, go and hear him to-night, and judge for themselves. If they don't have fun enough for one night then we are mistaken.

MILWAUERE CLUB WHEAT .- The New York Corn Exchange Reporter, of Saturday last says: "The Milwaukee Club Wheat reaches us i very good condition, and commands ready sale, as it is generally better cleaned, and free from foul grains, than much of that from Chicago, which is very dirty, and sure to come forward in bad order. This should admonish ablippers to avoid all such samples; and, by so doing, much improvement in the cleaning of grain would soon result."

A very beautiful and superior Organ, d'rect from the manufacturer, Reading, near Boston, for sale, and can be examined in a day or so at the Room on Michigan Street. C. WALL is now having said organ put up. This organ is well calculated for a moderate sized church, and will be sold cheap, and on easy terms. Call on ROBBERT OF THE EXPRESS OFFICE AT FOND DU Lac .- The Fond du Las Commonwealth, of Wednesday, says that the Express office in that city was most unaccountably relieved of $700 in gold, last Monday night or Tuesday morning .-Monday night, the Agent, Mr. Hartwell, checked off the contents of the office, and, as he is confident, placed all in the safe and looked it as usual. In the morning, the package containing the above amount was missing, and has not ye been found. Whether the Agent is mistaken in supposing he put it in the safe, and some one standing in the office picked it up while the checking was going on, and fled; or whether the office was entered by false keys duirng the night, the key of the safe stolen from the Agent while asleep, and the safe opened, is all a profound mystery.

ARREST OF A COURTERPRITER AT BARABOO. From the Baraboo Republic of the 27th, we learn that a young man named John Bryant was arrested there on Tucsday morning, on a charge of being connected with a gang of counterfelters. Bryant had arrived at that place on terfelters. Bryant had arrived at that place on the counterfelters. Bryant had arrived at that place on the filling schooner H. L. Lansing, Capt. Jaspen 1 you Monday night, and says the Republic, as it had 'leaked out,' rather authentically, that he was expected here about this time with a lot of was expected here about this time with a lot of counterfeit money, he was nabbed early the next morning by Constable Miller. Immediately on that officer's appearance, without being informed of the nature of the charge, the young man commenced tearing up the bills with copious draughts of water. He is an intelligent, and respeciable looking person, but as no one appear ed as his bail he was taken to jail."

MEETING OF THE CARAL BOARD-REDUCTION OF TOLLS.—The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Illinois and Michigan Canal was held in this City yesterday. The sale of property was but thinly attended and but little discount of the control of the contro

osed of.
The most important action of the board was the reduction of toils on lumber to the old rates, or one cent 1,000 feet, per mile; and on Lash and Shingles, to one mill and three-tenths por 1,000 per mile. The toil on coal was equalized so that the charges on a boat from either Ottaws, Morris or Lasalle are the same—distance wa, Morrie or Lassite are the same—distance not being taken into account.

This action, it is hoped, will give activity to the new depressed Lumber Trade, and stimulate the combustion of Illinois coal in this city, and along the line of the Canai. The resolution making the reduction takes effect on the let of June.—Chicago Tribuns.

BY MAGNETTO TELEGRAPH Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 28. House.—The House passed the Post Office, army, and Ocean Mai I Steamship bill, and then went into committee on the private calendar.
72 House and 17 Senate bills were passed. SENATE.—A communication was received from the President, covering the correspondence re-specting the arrest of Wm. Walker, and ordered

Mr. Seward, of N. Y., presented a resolution occurred the session till the 21st of June.— Laid over. Mr. Mason, from the committee on foreign relations, to whom was referred the resolution in-quiring whether additional legislation is neces-sary to place certain power in the hands of the Executive, submitted a resolution, of which the substance is, that the official statements show a succession of acts of agression by the British emisers in the Gulf of Mexico, and so marked and extraordinary as to have awakened the dignation of the country. Vessels under dignation of the country. Vessels under our flag, pursuing lawful commerce, have been fired into and stopped, and inquiries made as to cargo, destination, crew, &c. No less than 15 American ships in the harbor of Sagua Las Grange, and six on the high sees, are officially reported as having had to submit to aggressions from British cruisers, and each additional arrival brings fresh accounts of aggression by the same power on our flee.

It has heretefore happened in isolated cases, where similar aggressions have occurred through misconstructions, that the U.S. have been contented to accept a disclaimer of the attempt, but the continued and persevering character of these outrages, is such as to arrouse the indignation of the country, and to require to be arrested at once, and to end at once and forever the continuance of such judgaity. The slave trade is al-leged as the excuse. The committee will not discuss that it is sufficient that the U-S., though o ten invoked to do so, refused to recognize the

They test on the principle that the marine. under their flag, cannot be visited or questioned without their consent, and the committee deems this a fit occasion to declare it as a principle of the United States, admitting of no reserve or qualifications, and to be maintained at any cost: They admit of no right of visitation in law. It cannot be tolerated by any sovereign power without derogation from their severeignty. The infraction of sovereignty consists in the visita-tion. The best American and English authority, Stowell for instance, so decides, founding the de-cision on true principles. Firstly, the quality of all independent states and the community of the sea as a high way.

Indignant as the American people are, and ought to be, at these aggressions, yet their oc-currence will shord an opportunity to end them at once and forever. The committee releas from recommending further legislation, only for the reason that the President has ordered all our available navy to the infested waters, with orders to protect our flag. It is believed that our available navy to the infeated waters, with orders to protect our flag. It is believed that this measure will be serviceable for the present in stopping the outrages. The subject has also been brought to the notice of the offending power, both through the Minister at London and the Minister at Washington. We cannot therefore, until we receive a reply from Great Britain, decide on measures that will be a guarantes for the future, for nothing short of that will satisfy the American people. Therefore, while rethe American people. Therefore, while re-fraining from recommending present legislation, the committee unanimously: Resolved, That American ships at sea under Democratic Candidate for 186c. The leaders of the pre-slavery or national State officers, with the amount opposite their Democratic party, already begin seriously to names, as follows: consider the nomination of Mr. Buchanan, as condidate for the Presidency in 1860. That our didate for the Presidency in 1860. That our A. D. Smith, present chief magistrate is looking forward to B. F. Hopkins, such un event, is a fact which appears to be generally acknowledged. We can discover no inconsistency in this, on either part. To no living man is the pro-slavory party more indebted, copt as to A. D. As far as the Republicans are concerned, it matters not a straw, to whom the so called Democracy may give their support; but we confess that it would give us inflaite pleasure to see the hero of Lecompton before the people. To be consistant with their protessions the Democracy can not refuse their support to Mr. Buchanan,—Such, undoubtedly, would be the best course for them to pursue. The doom of Buchanan democracy is sealed; there is nothing left them now but the privilege of giving up the ghost at the nuxt

THE ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.-The proposed adjournment of Congress on the 7th of June, meets with considerable disapproval. The Tribune's Washington correspondent says, that "it is now perfectly apparent that the actua; business which is necessary to carry on the Gov. ernment cannot be completed within that time. So it is also clear that the Loan bill for fifteen millions, which involves the whole flashelal and economical policy of the Government, cannot be properly discussed unless the time be extended. If Congress would fairly consider the public interests, they eight not to adjourn one hour before the lat of August; and they would not, but for the salary system, which seems in its infancy to have worked most injuriously, and has already provoked the cry of 'repeal'-a cry that will be made to resound through the land, unless some greater concern is exhibited for the

THE MORMON WAR .- Advices from Washington intimute that although there is now sufficient confirmation of the entrance of Gov. Cumming lute Salt Lake City, that fact is not esteemed in official circles as at all conclusive of pacification, or of a purpose on the part of the Mormons to abandon the contest. And entertaining this conviction, the Administration will take no backward steps in its policy until more satisfactory intelligence shall be received. It is contended, that as a heavy part of the campaign has already been incurred, it should not be abandoned until the objects for which it was undertaken are at least arranged. If the four millions required for the new volunteer regiments should be granted, a condition ought to be attached making the appropriation contingent upon the necessity for

The Milvankov River.

The assertion of the "Sontion!," that all the begains yours given on the bill for the appropriation by Congress to improve the mouth of the Milwakov river, were by Democrate, may prove to be true, but that paper has not yet seen a statement of the appropriation by Congress to improve the mouth of the manual of the mouth of the manual of the mouth of the mou

But anything the will serve a pretext for assalling the Donocratic party, the "Sentine" sunitches, with a spaemodic energy, the stances.

This assertion, at far as related to the Milwaukee River, was quite unintentional on our part. We had not, nor have we yet seen the vote upon the appropriation for the improvement at hold on the miprovement at ludge to by the Nees. The vote on the bill for the improvement of the Gonga Marbor was reported by the telegraph, as we have given it, and in relation to it, in our news summary wood contented as follows:

It is probably a mistake, srising either from Gov, Barstow's misunderstanding Kilbourn, or Kilbourn was indulging in a little persisinge to Barstow. It is at best merely what Kilbourn told Barstow he (K.) and told, or intended to tell, Judge Smith, and is not of the least account in the world.

The Brigadian-Generalistic.—The Washington correspondent of the Tribine says that there is a good deal of zealous competition for the Brigadian-Generalship, left vacant by the death where I kept my account, and requested the Cashier to put his seal upon it, and deposite the package in the vault of the bank subject to my

I felt satisfied with that assurance; but inasmuch as Milwaukee people were now all agreed upon the La Crosso company, and as I believed that company to be more efficient than any other one which could be made, I thought that company should be made the recipient of the grant.

There was never any intimation from me of any kind to Governor Bashford, of any reward or compensation for signing this or any other bill; or any present ar largess to be given or expected. Nor did I bear any payments of any sens to members of the Legislature until long at the control of the would not get the grant, or that he had no local of signing a bill giving it to them; or words to that effect. The following were the conclusions of the Investigating Committee on the subject:

"In a former part of this report, it was stated that ten thousand dollars in bonds were assigned to Hon. A. D. Smith, and that no package for him was put up by Jenkins. The committee had no satisfactory proof of his having received them, until they examined him as a witness.—There was, however, enough of testimony to arouse suspicion. Judge Smith testines that he received them, and how, and what he did with Companies."

We have given the above in relation to the

We print elsewhere a new Stay-Law just onected in Wisconsin, designed to staye of the collection of Mortgage Dabts. Our correspondent is very indignant, but we take the matter far more coolly. The fact is that indebted and desperate men, who see all that they possess about to be torn from them by the operations of laws which they can modify, will have this sort of legislation, especially where their creditors are mainly non-resident. We say this, not to excess a saying but to proclaim a fact which could mainly non-resident. We say this, not ex-cuse a wrong, but to preclaim a fact, which cap-talists abould never have forgotten and should at least honceforth heed. Mon who forcelese mortgages on their neighbors in order to lend the money to strangers a thousand miles away at money to atrangers a thousand miles away at twelve to twenty per cent, must take the chances of such laws into their calculations—if they do not, the fault is certainly not ours. We anticipate stay-laws, or something equivalent, in every deeply indebted State, and those who are persuaded into londing their money or mortgage to strangers at exorbitant rates must make up their minds to being called Shylocks, shavers, &c., &c., and paid (if at all) at the end of "the "law"s delay." If they are not resigned to this, let

Some time in the latter part of 1866, or forepart of 1857, I think in January, 1857, but am not sure, I found one morning on my table, in my library in Milwaukee, a package containing tou Bonds of the La Crosse & Milwaukee Rail road Company, payable live years from date, I think. From whom they came, I did not know; They can flog their niggers behind their meeting houses, with no one to molest or make them houses, with no one to molest or make them afraid.—Chicago Tribune.

INSANITY OF GREAT MEN. The London correspendent of The New York Tribum, says that "it is really remarkable how many of the conservative and reactionary leaders of 1818 9 have lately become mad, viz: Count Stadion and Baron Kulmer, both Austrian Ministers; the King of Prussia, his Private Scoretary, Mark Nichuln, and now Baron Joilachich, Ban of Crotia. Afand now Baron Jonachica, Ban of Orbital and the ten having lost he influence at court, and spent the dowry of his wife, he became a lunatic, and is now in an asylum near Vienna. Count Sheeb, ony, the late Hungarian Minister, is detained in the same horse. So is Baron Perreira, the Venotian banker, who in 1848 tried to play a political part in jayor of the court, but lacked the nerve which alone leads to success.

THE SABBATH.

Bidney Emith pronounced the following connet one he most beautiful in the Anglish language:
With silent awe I hell the secred morn,
Which slowly wakes while all the fields are still.
A sockling belief on every breads borne,
A graver minimul gargiter from the fill,
An soho answers solver from the fill,
And softer sings held linner from the thorn—
The skylark warbles in a tone loss shrill,
Hall light seroes; in still secred fishbath morn,
The roots fishby in alry droves!
The axes apiacly splow faster shows;
The galesthat lattly sighted along the groves
Have lushed their downy sings in sweet repose;
The hoverlog rack of clouds forgets to move;
to smited the day when the first morn arose. emost beautiful in the English language:

A FRESCH CAPITALIST IN LOYS.—The Paris correspondent of the Lendon Court Journal says, recently, a well-known capitalist has purwith his unwelcome attentions, a charming ittle singer, one of the favoritee of the public, and what is remarkable in Paris, a lady who is warmly attached to her husband, and a model of propriety. He wrote a most flattering letter to the lady, wherein he proposed an engagement at the Italian Theatre in London, where he is all powerful, besides a handsome settlement, if she would expense to a handsome settlement, if she would expense to a concern, bin in his unpowerful, oceans a monosome sectioners, it she would consent to accompany him in his apporoaching journey to England. The lady immediately presented the lotter to her husband,— The latter, who is a man of wit and sense, and one of our most elever functiationisiss, instead of flying into a rage and talking about daggers, platels and small swords, immediately ast down, and, englesing the aforementioned letter to the placies and small swords, immediately sat down, and, enclosing the aforementioned better to the delinquent's wife, added a few lines of his own:

"Maden, Xour husband has just sent the present incleance to my vife. She is willing to accept the proposition therein made, and will accompany Monsione R— to London, on condition that we make it a partie carres, and that you will accompany me upon the same terms.—

That is, entendons-nows, being nothing but a poor familiations, my condition must be gratis, and this still leaves the advantage on your side, for you of course, will be the first to own that the sacrifice of my telent, face, and figure amply componsates that of the engagement and settlecomponents that of the engagement and settle-ment offered by your husband to my wife." Jealousy, Murder and Saicide-A De-mostic Tragedy.

man mand William Mowers, who occupied a netted house a few tops south of the Green Island Hotel.

A crowd at once gathered, when it was ascertained that a man maned George Reed had ontored the house of Mowers, where he found his wife, and after holding a half hour's conversation with her, drew a dirk and stabbad her on the loft side of the neck, below the err, once in her heart, and once in the pit of the stomach; and once in the pit of the stomach, and once in the right side.

The woman lingered in great agony, though the stronch is times, "I am dying!" "I am dying!" "I am dying!" "Reed himself fell on the floor and died in live minutes after he strock his willous how for the floor.

The cause of the tragic affair was developed before the Coroner's Jury, and may briefly be stated as follows: Reed was married to his with a year ago lat February. They lived togather until four or five months since, when she left him and took up her residence at Mowers', where she was given a heme and omployment at fifty contapper week, Mir. Mowers being unwell. Reed him and took up her residence at Mowers', where she was given a heme and omployment at fifty contapper week, Mir. Mowers being unwell. Reed him and cook up her residence at Mowers', where she was given a heme and omployment at fifty contapper week, Mir. Mowers being unwell. Reed him and cook up her residence at Mowers' where she was given a heme and omployment at fifty contapper week, Mir. Mowers being unwell. Reed him and cook up her residence at Mowers' conscioually, where the proper delivery, and altend to eliminate the strong him and took up her residence at Mowers' conscioually, where the proper delivery, and ships at Pier 7, was fiver proper delivery, and attend to all called the rangements, and having and there are reason to the open delivery to Milwaltee, and other prepared on the proper delivery to Milwaltee, and other prepared on the proper delivery to Milwaltee, and other prepared on the semantics and barings and the was prepared on the semantics and barin of visiting her at Mowers' occasionally, where thy would talk over old matters, and usually part on having high words. At one time he found a young man at Mowers', and had known of her having walked out with young people.—This greatly offended him, and he made threats against his wife. On Saturday evoning he went to Mowers' hout $\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock. At the door he was met by Mrs. Mowers, and he inquired, "Is Catherine theed here?" Mrs. M. said, "No she is not." He replied, "You lie G.—d d.—n you;" and rushing past her, he entered the bed room on the same floor, where he found his wife partially und essed, preparing to go to bed with a tinily and essed, preparing to go to bed with a little child of Mrs. Mowers.

It seems they held a conversation together some twenty minutes, when he arose and drew from his broast pocket a dirk having a blade about five inches in length. He struck her first, then himself, until he fell, apparently exhausted.

Mrs. Mowers maked to the door as soon as she saw him draw the knile, and saw her husband entering the gate. She told him there was trou-ble, and rushing ir, he saw what Reed had done. Going out, he raised the cry of "murder." Going out, he raised the cry of "marger."
Roed was a man about 25 years of age. For some time past he has kept a saloon at the Forryway of Morrison's boats. He was probably, formerly a suller, as his broast was covered with sailor devices marked in India blue and red link. and the liquer when he entered the house.
His lace was small, and a slight mustache and thin lips gave it a determined, desperate appearance. The murdered woman was between 18 and 19, and at least ordinarily good looking.—
She had said she would not again live with Road, because he had struck her.

Mowors was fired, but the fire was discovered before much damage was done. He believed at the time that Reed was the incendiary. The scone of the tragedy was visited yesterday by thousands from the neighboring country and this city. Among those most eager in pressing through the crowd, to obtain a sight of the bodies, were women, young and old.

Nothing in the house had been disturbed from the time of the occurrence, except that the corpre had been undressed, weshed and their wounds sown up. The scene presented was one of herror. The murderer laid upon the floor, his victim was on a table, covered with wet We believe we have stated every material fact brought out ou the inquest. No evidence was adduced showing that the decreased woman was not a virulean character, or that there was any real foundation for the jealousy of her hasband, beyond the fact that she refused to live with him and did keep comeany, in a proper way, with other young people. Road had been heard to say that he would never harts hair of her head, and had told Mowers that he had no objection to his allowing her a home at his house. But during the past week Read had declared his wife had got to treat him differently, or he would give her the length of his dirk. The dirk was Count by the side of Reed, and was preduced before the Coroner's icquest.

October Witheek hold the inquest. The Jury's verbict was "that the decessed, outdaring ala-tilla Hogel, came to her death by hermorrage and prostrution, caused by wounds inflicted with a dirk, in the hands of her husband, John Rood." The lequest on the body of Roed, was then Doth bodies were buried yesterday.
